Freewriting Worksheet

Instructions
Write about yourself. Your teacher will tell you when to start and stop writing. Do not think about grammar and mistakes – just write.

When you are finished, look at your writing and find 5 things you want to use in your first draft and underline them.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________