M.A. in TESOL Programme

This MA programme is designed to encourage the acquisition and development of TESOL professional knowledge and expertise. It aims at:

- Enhancing participants' knowledge of contextual issues concerning the Teaching of English to Speakers of Other Languages.
- To refine and extend the participants' abilities to employ a variety of practical skills in teaching and researching English language teaching.
- To extend their motivation and inform their strategies for continuous professional development.